THIS WEEK

F1 Cherry Tree had so much fun at the farm this week! Lot of learning, exploring and new experiences with friends. Well done F1 Cherry Tree you were amazing!

Year 4 also had an amazing time on their trip to Weston Park Museum. They were ambassadors to our school and showed real enthusiasm when enquiring about the exhibition. It was lovely to see them shine! Well Done Y4.

Future Thursday - Yesterday, we were joined by Craig Hanby who volunteers for APEX TKD - Taekwondo for Everyone. The session was fun filled and interactive and both children and staff enjoyed the demonstrations. Thank you to Craig.

*Sponsored Walk* - Please look out for your child's letter and sponsorship form. Information can also be found on Classdojo.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

In Collective Worship this week the children were taught about the courage of Saint George, the Patron Saint of England. We shared the story of how he slayed a dragon to save a princess, and chose Christianity as his faith. St. George's Day is a Christian feast day celebrated annually on April 23 in his honour. St George is said to have died on April 23, 303.
